A.H.S. Newscast

By Peggy Wooten

Hello there!

This was a very short week at A. H. S. — a week we have been looking forward to for many weeks, largely because we were given a two-day vacation.

Today is a very important day in the history of our great country. This is the day that the Pilgrims gave thanks to God for their safe arrival into this country. Today, we have so much to be thankful for that it is impossible to name all of them. There is one, however, that we would like for you to remember in your prayer this Thanksgiving Day. And that is to remember to pray for world peace, which is so vitally important today, in order for our survival tomorrow.

Now for the week's news around the campus of A. H. S. The Tri-Hi-Y girls sent a Thanksgiving basket to someone who is ill. We always like to hear about worthwhile projects being carried out through our clubs.

The football team played a wonderful game last Friday night. This was their last game of the season. Those seniors who are playing their last football game are: Alton Smith, Maynard Beane, "Boots" Carter, Lewis McDearmon and Jimmy Harper.

The S. C. A. sponsored a very nice dance Friday night with the music furnished by the Dixie Dandies. All that attended seemed to enjoy it.

Jerry A. Burke, Division Superintendent of Appomattox County Schools, addressed the parents and teachers at their monthly meeting Tuesday night. Supt. Burke made his address on "The Superintendent, His Staff and Community Relations." This was in keeping with the P.-T .A. theme for the year, "Better School and Community Relations."

Mrs. Hugh W. Brown reports that she is looking forward to a good basketball season. She has been drilling her basketball girls for some time now, and she says that the prospects look good. Those out for forward this year are Frankie Doss, Evelyn Ferguson, Mildred Tolley, Betty Baldwin, Jane Catlett, Shirley Arrington, Maybelle Sanders, Virginia Megginson, Ann Cunningham, Sandra Moore, Joella Ferguson, Dorothy Pulliam, Dorothy Totty, and June Harper. The girls out for guard are Sandra McIntosh, Rachel Austin, Patsy Williams, Hilda Woody, Janice McClenny, Betty Mitchell, Laura Carson, Peggy Garrett, Mary Anna McDearmon, Sandra Blythe, Virginia Rush, Stella Rosser, Mary Anna McDearmon, and Ruth Austin. The girls will play their first game December 3. We wish you the best of luck, girls!

The F. B. L. A. held its monthly meeting Tuesday. This organization plans to take as one of its projects to make money in order that they may buy a new business machine for the business department.

The school newspaper, Commercial Comments, was distributed yesterday. The sale seems to be increasing very rapidly. We would like to commend the staff on its excellent job.

This is all the news this week. We wish you a festive Thanksgiving Day!

Peggy.

Carver-Price School News

Hello Readers! We hope that everyone has a pleasant Thanksgiving and remembers that it is more blessed to give than receive. The student council is in charge of Thanksgiving baskets for the needy. Students have brought canned goods and food from home as well as making financial contribution for the baskets.

Tuesday night the Harvest Festival was held. We shall report on it in our next news column. Each grade has worked very hard in making it a success.

Mrs. William Burke sent a very interesting booklet on "Colonial Williamsburg," with color plates of each interesting historical building and its interior from a reprint of the National Geographical Magazine. This material was given to the 7th grade classes, which are preparing a booklet on the history of Virginia. This class thanks Mrs. Burke for this material.

The Library Club is very happy to report that its Book Week program received many compliments from the students as well as the faculty. The name of the play which was presented was "The Book Doctor." The cast was as follows: Dr. Mendum, Edward Walker; Miss Adhesive, Celestine Chambers; Heidi, Diane Tibbs; Rebecca of Sunnybrook Farm, Frances Austin; Robinson Crusoe, William Forbes; David Copperfield, Robert Johnson; Robert Stevenson, Russell Turner; Miss Minerva, Helen Flowers; William Green Hill, Hershel Forbes; Uncle Remus, Samuel Scruggs.; Last of the Mohicans, Sidney Watts. A book contest was held in grades 1-12. The winner was Rosetta Lipford for the high school. We were proud of the elementary winners. Mrs. Smith, County Librarian, attended the program and made remarks at the conclusion of it.

The Third Grade class seems to be very interested in their two numbers for the "Harvest Festival." They have worked very hard to make their two numbers a success. The class has recently completed folders to hold all their work which has been done thus far in school. We hope to continue this method this school year so that each one can check his individual progress in school. The students have brought in some interesting things for their science table. They have gone to the library to do research on quite a number of objects brought in. The Book Week quiz was won in the third grade by Carolyn Matthews. She received a coloring book. An arithmetic and spelling match was held in grade three on Friday. Prize winners were Clyde Megginson in arithmetic and Carolyn Matthews in spelling.

Until next week, our thought: "Enter into His gates with Thanksgiving, and into His courts with praise; be thankful unto Him, and bless His name. For the lord is good; His mercy is everlasting; and His truth endureth to all generations."

Evergreen

Evergreen, Nov. 22.- Mrs. Sue Calhoun, Mrs. Helen Downey and D. W. Downey, of Baltimore, Md., were week-end guests of Mrs. O. C. Paulette and Mr. and Mrs. Kermit Paulette.

Henry Staples, Jr., has entered Phillips Secretarial College, for a business education.

Z. V. Harvey entered the Virginia Baptist Hospital for treatment Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Ranson spent the week-end at Richmond, and attended the Holiday on Ice.

A number from here attended the wedding of Mr. Dan Harvey and Miss Cecil Hillsman at Red Oak Church Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Staples and sons, Henry Jr. and Gordon, and Miss Peggy Taylor spent Sunday with Mrs. Staples' mother, Mrs. Minnie Butler, at Carrsville, Va.

Mrs. Z. E. Cheatham has returned from the Virginia Baptist Hospital. She is convalescing in the home of her daughter, Mrs. H. B. Stanley.

Mr. and Mrs. John Ash and Effie Meddle and Thelma and Lorene Grimes, of Roanoke, and Mr. and Mrs. I. C. Gillespie and son, of Toana, Va., spent Sunday in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elijah Farrar.

Mrs. Green Garrett, of Pamplin, spent Tuesday with Mrs. G. W. Glover.

Misses Phyllis Harvey, Hazel and Ora and Phyllis Paulette, Lloyd Richardson and James Moore attended the Holiday on Ice in Richmond Saturday night.

OVERCHARGE PROBE BACKFIRES

Pratt, Kansas.- County commissioners, thinking they had been overcharged in the newspaper's rate for county legal advertising, didn't know how well off they were. When they went to complain, Robert Cribb, publisher of the newspaper, found the paper had been billing the county eight per cent below the State legal rate. Now the county will be correctly billed—at the higher rate.

WHEN IT RAINS

Holyoke, Mass.- After being involved in a minor traffic accident, a 12-year-old boy went to a nearby doctor's building for treatment and left his bicycle outside. When he returned, he found someone had stolen his bike.

TWIN COINCIDENCE

Rochester, N. Y.- Becoming engaged to brothers on the same day, Mrs. Dorothy McDonald and Mrs. Helen McDonald, twin sisters, were married on the same day seven years ago. Recently, they gave birth to girls on the same day, within a half hour of each other.

SAVES CHILDREN, DROWNS

Fort Lauderdale, Florida.- Mrs. Hazel Wolin, 33, drowned but saved her children by holding their heads above water when they were trapped in a car that overturned in a canal. Mrs. Wolin and the children, Irene 6, and Roy 3, were trapped in the upside down car about fifteen minutes while her husband, Martin, got out through a window and tried to rescue them. The bottom of the car was tipped over and the children then removed. Mrs. Wolin had already drowned.

THOUGHTFUL THIEVES

Houston, Texas. - They were thoughtful burglars who recently lifted $450 from the cash register of a cafe here. After carefully ringing up a "no sale" sign on the register they departed with the cash.
